POLICE GAZETTE; OR, HUE AND CRY.

Published by Authority.

No. 101.] FRIDAY, JANUARY 2, 1829.

Containing the Substance of all Informations received in Cases of Felonies, and Misdemeanors of an aggravated nature, and against Receivers of Stolen Goods, reputed Thieves and Offenders escaped from Custody, with the time, the place, and every particular circumstance marking the Offence. The Names of Persons charged, who are known but not in Custody, and of those who are not known, their Appearance, Dress, and every other mark of identity that can be described. The Names of Accomplices and Accessories, with every other particular which may lead to their Apprehension. The Names of all Persons brought before the Magistrates, charged with any of the Offences mentioned and whether committed for Trial, Re-examination, or how otherwise disposed of. Also a Description of Property that has been Stolen, and particularly of Stolen Horses. with as much particularity as can be given, with every circumstance that may be useful for the purpose of Tracing and Recovering it.

FORGERY.

FRANCES HALL, late of the 'Rising Sun,' Windmill-st, Haymarket, stands indicted with Forging the Will and Codicil of her late Brother, Anthony Bond, deceased.—Whoever will apprehend the said FRANCES HALL, or cause her to be apprehended, and lodged in any of His Majesty's Gaols, shall receive Ten Pounds Reward, on application to Mr. Wright, No. 6, Bucklersbury, Solicitor to the Prosecution, or to Mr. John Baines Bond, the Prosecutor, at No. 8, James-street, Manchester-square.—The said Frances Hall, Benjamin Burn (the pugilist), and William Clarke, are at present under recognizances to take their Trial for a Conspiracy to set up the said Forged Will and Codicil, to deprive the only Child of the said Anthony Bond his Father's Property.—The said FRANCES HALL was lately under the protection of the said Benjamin Burn, and is supposed to be at present secreted by him. She is short and thin in person, of florid complexion, has a red mark under her eye, speaks quick, is a native of Bradford in Wiltshire, and is about forty-six years of age. She had on, when last seen, a blue pelisse, and a black bonnet with a veil, but there is reason to believe that she changes her dress often, in order to prevent detection.

Two Men are in custody at Bath, who gave their names WILLIAM JONES, and JOHN BAILEY, charged with passing Forged Ten Pound Notes of a Country Bank. The following is a description of their persons:—WILLIAM JONES, born at Kington, Herefordshire, five feet eight inches high, hazel eyes, dark hair, rather long nose and features, rather slender made; wears a black coat, waistcoat, and trousers, and Wellington boots; has with him a small leather portmanteau, and a dark bottle green great coat: about thirty years of age.—JOHN BAILEY; says he is a native of Herefordshire; five feet nine inches high, about forty years of age, of dark swarthy complexion, the skin of his face appears to shine a little, and has a smile on his countenance when he talks; rather full face, full eyes, small eye-brows, and high forehead: he wears an olive coat, buff waistcoat, dark mixed trousers, and Wellington boots: he has with him a drab great coat, much worn.

ROBBERY FROM THE PERSON.

On Tuesday night, the 30th instant, Mr. John Rowley, a Headborough, of Whitechapel, was attacked, about twelve o'clock, in Buck's-row, Whitechapel, by three Men, who knocked him down, and kicked him violently whilst upon the ground, and robbed him of a Silver Watch, with a black ribbon, a sovereign, and some silver.—One of the men was dressed as a coster-monger; and from certain expressions which they used, Mr. Rowley has reason to believe he was known by the robbers.

HOUSE-BREAKING.

On Wednesday, the 31st ultimo, the Dwelling-house of William Woodman, No. 29, Paradise-row, Chelsea, cabinet-maker, was broken and entered, and a pair of Garnet Rings, a Silver Spoon, marked 'M. A. W.' and the Street-door Key, were Stolen; numerous other articles were packed up, but it is supposed the thieves were disturbed.

Early on Saturday morning, the 27th instant, the Shop Front of Mr. Hogg's Premises, of No. 104, London-road, Southwark, Silversmith and Jeweller, was cut, by some sharp Instrument, and the following articles were Stolen therefrom, viz.—About forty wedding-rings, thirty gold seals, forty gold keys, one ditto, large size, with amulet cross; three gold mounted eye-glasses, two chased borders, one plain ditto, one pair of scissors, with gilt bows and sheath, two chased corals, twelve gold watch rings, six double-cased silver watches, and one metal ditto.—A Reward of Ten Pounds will be paid by Mr. Hogg, upon the conviction of the party or parties and the recovery of the property (or in proportion for any part), to the person who will give such information as may lead to the same.

On Sunday night, the 21st instant, the Dwelling-house of Mr. Loudan, Watch and Clock Maker, No. 149, Great Surrey Street, was broken and entered, and the following Gold and Silver Watches Stolen, viz.—

And from Eighty to One Hundred other Gold and Silver Watches.

A Desk in the Shop was broken open, from which a Cash Box was taken, containing Sundry Bills (over due) and Memorandums, of no use but to the owner.—Whoever will give Information of the offender or offenders to R. Pople, Police Officer, Union Hall, shall, on conviction and recovery of the Property, receive a Reward of One Hundred Pounds (or in proportion for any Part thereof), by applying to Mr. Loudan, aforesaid.

HORSE AND CATTLE STEALING.

Stolen, on Wednesday night, the 10th instant, from the Crew Yard, near the Dwelling-house of Mr. Benjamin Jackson, in Cowbit, near Spalding, a Dark Brown Hackney Mare, in foal, whole colour, rising five years old, about fourteen hands and a half high, switch tail, low in condition, and had one shoe on the fore foot.—A Reward of Five Guineas will be paid to any Person or Persons giving such Information as may lead to the apprehension and conviction of the offender or offenders.—If Strayed, a Reward of One Guinea and all reasonable Expenses will be paid to any Person giving information so as to lead to her being recovered, on application to the said Benjamin Jackson, at Cowbit, near Spalding.

Stolen or strayed, from off Stuston Common, on Friday night, the 26th, or early on Saturday morning, the 27th December, 1828, a Bright Chesnut Horse, of the nag kind, the property of Mr. Clarke, of Stuston, Suffolk, rising five years old, about fifteen hands high, with a switch tail, two white legs behind, a star on his forehead, and has been lately blistered on both hocks. Also a Dark Brown Filly, rising three years old, with full mane and tail when lost.—Whoever will give information of the said horse and filly, or either of them, (if strayed,) shall be handsomely rewarded, and all reasonable expenses paid, by the said R. Clarke, Esq. But if stolen, a reward of twenty pounds will be given on conviction of the offender or offenders; half of which will be paid by the said Mr. Clarke, and the other half by Mr. William Fincham, Treasurer to the Diss Association.

Stolen, on Wednesday night, the 10th instant, from a Piece of Pasture Ground, in Cowbit, near the Dwelling-house of Mr. William Harrison, at Cowbit, near Spalding, a Chesnut Nag Mare, in foal, rising five years old, standing about fourteen hands three inches high, with a small spot of white on her forehead, and a switch tail (if not altered), the property of the said Mr. W. Harrison.—Whoever will discover the offender or offenders, so that he or they may be brought to justice, shall on his or their conviction, be entitled to and receive a Reward of Ten Guineas from the Treasurer of the Spalding Association for the Prosecution of Felons; and a further Reward of Five Guineas from the said Mr. Harrison.—If Strayed, Mr. Harrison offers a Reward of One Guinea, and all reasonable Charges, on delivery.

Stolen, on the night of the 16th of October, 1827, out of a Stable belonging to Mr. James Wyley, High Onn, near Stafford, a dark Brown Hackney Mare, six years old, fifteen hands high, black legs, free from long hair, cut tail, three or four white spots on her side, and shews a good deal of blood; and when Stolen was worth Forty Pounds.—A Reward of Fifty Pounds will be paid, on the conviction of the offender or offenders, by the Treasurer of the Church Eaton Association for the Prosecution of Felons; and a further Reward of Fifteen Pounds, from the said Mr. James Wyley, on the recovery of the Mare;—and if not much injured a Reward of Thirty Pounds will be paid on recovery of the same. There is reason to believe that the said Mare is now in London.

A Black Gelding, near fourteen and a half hands high, aged, a sore back, very low in condition, with cut tail, supposed to have been Stolen, was found in the High Road, near Colnbrook, on the evening of the 16th instant, and will be restored to the owner, upon payment of the Expenses. Application to be made to Joseph Sawyer, Police Horse Patrol, Harlington Corner, Middlesex.

Stolen, on Friday night, the 19th instant, from the Stable of Mr. Moulding, at the 'Bell,' Widford, Herts, a Black Mare Pony, about nine hands high, two white legs behind, a white star upon the forehead, a swelling upon the upper part of the tail, which is very thick, and has one knee a little injured; the property of William Wall, of Widford.

Stolen, from a Field, near Brecknock, South Wales, on Thursday night, the 18th instant, a Bay Mare; about fourteen hands high, six years old, has a small star in the forehead, and a white stripe on the right nostril, two hind feet white up to the fetlock joint, a small switch tail, and long mane; saddle galled on the back, collar galled on each shoulder blade, and very heavy in foal.—Whoever shall give such information as may lead to the recovery of the said Mare, and the conviction of the offender or offenders, shall receive a Reward of Five Pounds, on applying to Mr. Francis Moore, of Brecknock aforesaid, the owner.

On Friday night, the 19th instant, the Stable of Mr. George Reade, of Horton, near Leek, Staffordshire, was broken and entered, and a Black Mare, aged, in foal, with a white mark down the face, and a white fore foot—also a Grey Colt; rising two years old, with switch tail, and his shoes marked 'W. B.', were Stolen therefrom.—Any Person giving information of the offender or offenders, shall, on conviction, receive Five Pounds Reward, on application to the said Mr. George Reade.

During the night of Friday, the 14th of November last, some person or persons feloniously stole and rode away from a field, in the occupation of Mr. Peter Theakstone, of York, Butcher, situate in the township of Huntington, in the North-Riding of the county of York, a Black Mare, five years old, a star on the forehead, one hinder fetlock white, a switch tail, stands about fifteen and a half hands high, and her off-side nostril has been torn, the property of the said Peter Theakstone.—Whoever will give such information as shall lead to the apprehension and conviction of the perpetrator or perpetrators of this felony, shall, upon conviction, receive a reward of Ten Guineas from the Treasurer of the City of York Association.

Stolen, from Grove House Park, Chiswick, early on Wednesday morning, the 17th instant, a Black Blood Mare, with switch tail, a white spot on the forehead, and about sixteen hands high, the property of William Evans, Esq., No. 32, Hertford-street, May Fair.

Stolen, the same morning, from an adjoining Field, a Chesnut Mare, about fourteen hands high, has been blistered on one of the fore legs, the property of Mr. Joseph Jessopp, of Sutton Court Farm, Steward to the Duke of Devonshire.—Two Men were seen riding two Horses about half a mile from where the above were Stolen, about half-past three o'clock, the same morning, and were traced as far as Battersea Bridge.

Stolen, supposed by two Men of suspicious character, tramping or travelling the Country, on Thursday night, the 18th instant, from a Field, belonging to E J. Curteis, Esq., M. P. for Sussex, at Windmill Hill, Wartling, Sussex, a Dark Bay Gelding, aged, fifteen hands high, without shoes, has a saddle mark on the back, and lately blistered on the fore legs—Also a Brown Mare, aged, not quite so high, with the knees lately broken, and a speedy cut, has some white on the right foot above the shoe, has a saddle mark on the back, and a star on the forehead: they are both slight made, and gentle, and have generally been rode by ladies—On the same night, two Saddles and Bridles were Stolen from the Stable of Mr. Robert Pursglove, which was broken into.—The Horses were seen within two miles of Maidstone, on Friday morning.—A Reward will be paid on conviction.

On Thursday night, the 18th instant, the Stable of Mr. William Medlaw, Farmer, at Wilden Shrubbs, near Bedford, was broken into, and a Black Mare Stolen. She is in good condition, about fourteen hands and a half high, with two white heels, a star in the forehead, and rather rat tailed. She was seen at Bedford Turnpike Gate, about one o'clock the following morning, going towards London. The Man that was seen with the Mare, appeared to be about five feet seven inches high, and had on a snuff coloured coat.

Stolen, or Strayed, on Friday night, the 12th instant, out of a Piece of Land, adjoining Folly Lane, and near to Gosford Green, a Strong Chesnut Horse, of the Nag kind, five years old, near fifteen hands high, with a white blaze down his face, white off heel, switch tail, and is a little collar marked.—If Stolen, whoever will give such information of the offender or offenders as may lead to his or their conviction, shall receive Ten Guineas Reward; if Strayed, any person giving intelligence of the said Horse, so that he may be had again, shall receive One Guinea Reward, by applying to Mr. W. Howard, Gosford-street, Coventry.

LARCENY.

A young man, who said his name was EDWARD CLEVELAND, lately stole a quantity of men's and women's wearing apparel, to the amount of nearly thirty pounds, the property of James Kestell, Oxford-road, Godalming. He is about twenty years old, short stature, rather a crooked nose, and was dressed in a brown great coat, black waistcoat, and blue trousers. It is supposed he took the property away in two parcels, packed in duck wrappers; and had also a band-box, with women's caps, and came towards London.

Stopped, on Tuesday morning, the 30th instant, in the Edgware-road, on the person of a Man, calling himself JOHN BURNHAM, the Manes and Tails of from Six to Eight Horses; colours, white, iron-grey, and black. Supposed to have been Stolen.—Any Person who may be able to identify the said Manes and Tails, is requested to apply to the Chief Clerk of the Police Office, Marylebone, as the Prisoner will be brought up for further examination on Thursday next.

Stolen, on the afternoon of Thursday, the 1st instant, from the house of Mary Avery, No. 13, Tenter-street, Spitalfields, one drab silk shawl, and one red ditto, one Leghorn bonnet, a black veil, one pen-knife, and a blue Morocco purse, containing seventeen shillings and sixpence, belonging to Mary Penny; also five yards of printed cotton, one amber coloured silk shawl, nine yards of Waterloo blue stuff, seven yards of printed cotton, one crimson Bath cloak, one
